The Future of Spinecare

A Perspective Offered by the American Academy of Spine Physicians

Introduction

This article was developed by the American Academy of Spine Physicians (AASP) to serve as an introduction to possible future developments and trends in spinecare. It was meant to generate interest and more research on the subject. The article was created by a designated multidisciplinary panel of experts and therefore the projections do not necessarily reflect the opinions of all members of the American Academy of Spine Physicians.
